Score

The 2018 de Pressac is laced with inky red/purplish fruit, blood orange, mint, lavender and rose petal. Just as it was in barrel, the 2018 is quite reticent, while the finish is attenuated. I miss some of the exuberance of recent vintages. Pressac can be one of the most distinctive wines in all of Bordeaux. The 2018 is attractive, to be sure, but it doesn't hit the highs it can.
