

Antonio Galloni
presents
vinous
explore all things wine

de Pressac

Tasting Notes

Score

The 2005 de Pressac is a rich, heady wine. Inky dark fruit, chocolate, leather, spice, blood orange and lavender flesh out. Sumptuous and bold, with tons of immediacy, the 2005 has enough richness to drink well for another decade or so. It's a decidedly flashy, well-balanced Saint-Émilion full of charm.

(92)

-- Antonio Galloni